

6516205936.txt

As we are required to travel extensively throughout the year on business we find it a great help to be able to use XM Radio for travel information. We find it difficult to find local stations easily at the sporadic times they are offering weather info.

We are asking the FCC to allow XM Radio to continue broadcasting this important information.

Thank you, R. Mann, Handhewn Bows